

The Amuri Community Arts Council's Art Competition 2011

'Is that Surreally the Amuri?'

We invite artists to paint, draw, photograph or create a collage which shows the Amuri in a surrealist style. 'Surreal' is when something seems a little strange, but also quite real. So, use your imagination... surprise us, and dream up something strange and wonderful to show the Amuri as it has never been seen before! The youngers ones might imagine dogs in Dogstream, or falling red posts, or cows doing strange things in the paddocks. Who knows what we might find! Just go for it!

Pictures must be ready to hang in the gallery. Please state which age group you are entering.

Entries for this competition must be handed to the librarian by 3:00 p.m. on Friday 14th October, 2011.

Amuri Community Library and Hanmer Springs Library are the drop-off locations.

Cash prizes and/or arty packs will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in each age group.
